

Press Release

25th July 2019

DON'T ASK US, ASK OUR TEAM

Approaching their 50th year in business as a Volvo Truck and Bus Dealer, Irish Commercials is the largest Truck and Bus Dealer in the country with a staff of 145 and depots in Naas, Galway and Santry. Their ongoing investment in their facilities means that they are the best of their kind in the country and is equalled by their investment in their people through ongoing training and development, offering them every opportunity to grow and develop.

Irish Commercials are on the hunt for talented technicians to join their teams in Naas, Galway and Santry, and are especially interested to hear from those working in other sectors such as car and plant, who are considering a change in career direction and the opportunity to go far with Irelands largest Truck and Bus Dealer, Irish Commercials and the most powerful production truck in the world, Volvo – full upskilling and training will be provided.

Opportunities like this don't come along that often.

As far as working for Irish Commercials is concerned, don't ask us, ask our team....
